You're looking for a good communicator ... someone who plays great and can explain how he does it.

You're looking for someone who connects with your students ... an artist who's been where they are and understands how that feels.

You're looking for a professional that performs ... not just on stage, but as a clinician who really understands your students' needs and meets them in a fun, engaging, and interactive way.

Larry Spencer offers your program all that and more. Larry's experience and knowledge spans three decades and includes professional performing and teaching in jazz, pop, studio session, and classical genres.

Larry provides the real-world, hands-on experience and positive energy your students need to help them grow as musicians and enhance their enjoyment of playing music. Whether you need a jazz improv lesson, a trumpet master class, a jazz band clinic with a performance, or a dynamic pops concert soloist, Larry makes it fun, educational, and interesting for students of all ages.

Larry Spencer offers clinics and performances designed to inspire and entertain.

"Larry Spencer is a consummate trumpet player. He can negotiate any musical situation whether playing lead trumpet in a roaring big band, jazz trumpet soloist, or a classical brass quintet- Larry covers ALL of the bases."

- Curt Wilson
Professor of Music
Director of Jazz Studies
Texas Christian University

Larry will provide your audience with a lively, fun-filled evening suitable for the entire family. His amazing versatility, incomparable musicality, and unparalleled technique will dazzle students and parents alike.
